

Membership Payment Options for Aikido Classes

Two Rivers Aikikai is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization run by volunteers. In our commitment to equity and accessibility, we use a “pay as you are able” payment structure. Our aim is to remove financial barriers to learning and practicing Aikido and/or Iaido, while ensuring the sustainability of our dojo.

	BASE RATE	CHOOSE YOUR RATE	SUPPORTER RATE
Rate Description	Designed for those with reliable incomes that meet basic needs comfortably.	Pay as you are able. Any amount from zero to the base rate will support the dojo.	Any surplus above the Base Rate is tax deductible and makes it possible to offer these flexible rates.
Aikido - adults	$120	$0 - $119	>$120
Aikido - teens (ages 12 - 17)	$80	$0 - $79	>$80
Iaido	$80	$0 - $79	>$80
Aikido + Iaido	$145	$0 - $144	>$145
1-month beginner session* - adults	$140	$0 - $139	>$140
1-month beginner session* - teens	$120	$0 - $119	>$120

*Beginner session includes training uniform

How do I pay? check, cash, venmo (@TwoRiversAikikai)

Equipment:

Training uniform (gi, dogi) $60 (new, used are available also)

Sandals (zori) - $19 (new; used are available also)

Wooden practice sword (bokken) or staff (jo) - $60-80, sold at cost from vendor, price varies